

Subject Legislative leadership

Authors Niska and Long

Analyst Colbey Sullivan

Date March 24, 2025

Summary

Under current law, the House of Representatives and Senate, acting through their rules committees, may designate up to five leadership positions in each body to receive up to 140 percent of the compensation provided to other representatives and senators. H.F. 1198 would increase this number to six leadership positions in each body.