

Subject Higher education: dual training competency grants

Authors Wolgamott; Allen

Analyst Nathan Hopkins

Date April 2, 2025

Summary

This bill would double all maximum grant amounts for the dual training competency grant program.

The dual training competency grant program provides grants to employers to help pay for instruction from eligible training providers and related expenses toward attaining an industry-recognized degree, certificate, or credential for their employees.