

Subject Mandated reports to the legislature

Authors Nash

Analyst Colbey Sullivan

Date March 9, 2026

Summary

State law often requires executive branch agencies to examine a specific topic and submit a report to the members of one or more legislative committees. H.F. 3679 would require agencies to submit such reports to the members electronically.

H.F. 3679 does not impact the existing requirement that agencies file one hard copy of each mandated report with the Legislative Reference Library (LRL) and make the same report available to the LRL electronically.