Summary

This bill would require the governor's Workforce Development Board to convene a subcommittee to review applications from nonprofit organizations and make recommendations to the legislature about which applicants should receive appropriations from the workforce development fund. Stipulates that the subcommittee must conduct outreach and lists minimum criteria that must be considered in reviewing applicants. Requires the subcommittee to submit its recommendations, approved by a vote of the full board, as a report to the legislative committees with jurisdiction by January 1 of every odd-numbered year, beginning in 2027.
