

Subject Vocational rehabilitation rulemaking

Authors Rehrauer and Baker

Analyst Anna Scholin

Date March 17, 2026

Summary

This bill requires the commissioner of employment and economic development to do rulemaking to allow individuals on a medical assistance waiver to receive extended employment services as well and to repeal existing rules that forbid that. Allows the commissioner to require submission of a form showing that each program is providing separate services which are each only reimbursed once.